

The Columbia Center for Research on Population, Health and Society
presents:

“A Workshop on Urban Research: The City in a Global World”

May 18, 2007, 9:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.
School of Social Work, 1255 Amsterdam Ave, at 121 St, Room 304

9:30 Welcome and overview, Peter Messeri, Kathy Neckerman and Elliott Sclar

Introductions: names and school/department

Peter Messeri (Co-facilitator, SMS)
Connie Nathanson (Co-Director, SMS)
John Santelli (Pop Fam Chair)
Jennifer Hirsch (SMS)
Nicole Marwell (Sociology/Latino Studies)
Mary Northridge (SMS)
Lourdes Hernandez (SMS)
M.K. Babcock (Program Coordinator, Population Center)
Irv Garfinkel (Co-director, Social Work)
Peter Bearman (Sociology)
James Quinn (GIS analyst, ISERP)
Laura Kurgan (Architecture, planning, and information; spatial information design program)
Sarah Williams (Architecture, planning and information; spatial information design program)
Andrew Rundle (SMS)
Elliott Sclar (SIPA)
Tom DiPrete (Sociology)
Dan O’Flaherty (Economics)
Hilary Silver (Brown University)
Julien Teitler (School of Social Work)
William McAllister (ISERP)
Kathy Neckerman (Sociology)

Short presentations on current and planned urban research

9:40-9:50	Andrew Rundle
9:50-10:00	Hilary Silver & Peter Messeri
10:10-10:20	Lourdes J. Hernandez
10:20-10:30	Mary Northridge
10:30-10:50	Break
10:50-11:00	Nicole Marwell
11:00-11:10	William McAllister
11:10-11:20	Dan O’Flaherty
11:40-11:50	James Quinn
11:50-12:00	Laura Kurgan
12:00-12:10	Sarah Williams
12:10-12:15	Julien Teitler

Working Lunch 12:15-1:30 Kathy Neckerman and Elliott Sclar, Rapporteurs