

NEW RESEARCH ON DISPARITIES IN HEALTH AND DEVELOPMENT

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

FRIDAY, MAY 4, 2018

9:00 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Room 311-312, School of Social Work

8:30 a.m.

Coffee

9:00 a.m.

Welcome

Jane Waldfogel

Professor, Columbia School of Social Work

9:05 a.m.

Panel 1: Achievement Gaps

Chair: Tom DiPrete, Columbia Sociology

Speakers:

Belinda Archibong, Barnard

Harmattan Winds, Disease and Gender Gaps in Human Capital Investment

Alex Eble, Columbia Teachers College

Gender Bias and the Gender Gap in Mathematics: Evidence from Chinese Middle Schools

Jane Waldfogel, Columbia School of Social Work

Studying Socioeconomic Status (SES) Gaps in Achievement Across Countries

10:05 a.m.

Panel 2: Social Media and Youth

Chair: John Santelli, Population and Family Health, Mailman School of Public Health

Speakers:

Courtney Cogburn, Columbia School of Social Work

Bridging Social Work and Innovative Technologies: The Case of Exploring Racial Inequality in Virtual Reality

Lena Edlund, Columbia Economics:

It's the Phone, Stupid

Desmond Patton, Columbia School of Social Work

Innovating Youth Violence Prevention with Data Science and Qualitative Methods

NEW RESEARCH ON DISPARITIES IN HEALTH AND DEVELOPMENT

11:05 a.m.

Break

11:20 a.m.

Panel 3: Early Childhood Education

Chair: Chris Wimer, Columbia School of Social Work

Speakers:

Cassie Landers, Population and Family Health, Mailman School of Public Health
The Getting Ready for School Initiative: Findings from a Pilot Study in NYC Head Start Programs

Jeanne Reid, Columbia Teachers College
Implementing Universal Pre-K for Socio-demographically Diverse Children and Families: Differences by Setting and Auspice

Sheila Smith, Health, Policy and Management, Mailman School of Public Health and National Center for Children in Poverty
Two State-Wide Surveys of Early Care and Education Teachers & Home-Based Providers on Children's Challenging Behavior and Expulsion: Implications for Research and Policy

Sara Vecchiotti, Foundation for Child Development
Reflections on Implementing Early Care and Education Programs: A Systems Perspective

12:30 p.m.

Working lunch

Chair: Louisa Gilbert, Columbia School of Social Work

Speaker:

Jennifer Hirsch, Sociomedical Sciences, Mailman School of Public Health
The Sexual Health Initiative to Foster Transformation (SHIFT): Interdisciplinary Mixed-Methods Research on Sexual Assault and Sexual Health

1:30 p.m.

Adjourn

Columbia Population Research Center
Advancing Research in Population, Health, and Society

 COLUMBIA
SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

Make waves. Move mountains. Change lives.